GlowTouch is a technology-driven provider of customer service outsourcing, BPO and technology services. They have guided numerous clients through their digital transformations, helping them better connect with customers to improve retention and enhance brand stickiness. A leader in the technology staffing industry, GlowTouch is headquartered in the US with centers on three continents.

Solution & Key Accomplishments

GlowTouch had grown 56% over the past 2 years and was looking to transition from their existing legacy ERP systems to a modern technology platform that would scale with their business and allow them to remain competitive in the Professional Services industry.

GlowTouch's leadership leaned on Peloton's industry & technology expertise to develop the implementation roadmap in a Fit-To-Modern framework. With standardized processes, industry best practices, and a new reporting strategy, GlowTouch is now able to support the company's growth.

Peloton implemented Oracle Cloud ERP at GlowTouch to achieve the following key benefits:

Stay In The Know With Peloton Consulting Group

Peloton Consulting Group will be hosting a Cloud Adventure hands-on experience with Oracle Fusion Cloud ERP on Wednesday, April 10th in Boston. Through a series of guided classroom workshops, customers will get a first-hand feel for Oracle's innovative interface, functional flows, reporting and analytics capabilities.

Following the Cloud Adventure, attendees will join us for a Red Sox game in our private VIP suite at Fenway Park.
